Yee-hah! Feeling ready to for trip of a lifetime? One lucky person's going to win it with TrekAmerica's incredible prize – a 10-day adventure in the south-west of the USA worth about £800.

TrekAmerica bills its Canyon Adventure (the one up for grabs) as its most adventurous trek. It's action packed, including hiking in Bryce Canyon and Zion National Park, sunrise at the Grand Canyon, an extreme Hummer tour in Moab and, wait for it, a night at a cowboy camp and a Western horseback ride in the desert. And the trip starts and ends in Vegas (baby) so don't forget some spare change.

TrekAmerica expeditions guarantee small group sizes and inspirational leaders, and they've been running for almost 40 years – so they must be doing something marvellously.

If you want to enter the competition to win a trip to the heart of real America, Adventure Travel style, click here and fill in your details before midnight on 6 December 2009. TrekAmerica is also offering 10% off all tours booked before 31 December 2009 – and yes, if you book a trip and then win the comp, you'll get the money back.

For information on all of TrekAmerica's other tours, see www.trekamerica.com.
